LEADERSHIP TRAITS

Leadership is critical for the success of any human endeavor. The United States Marine Corps requires Marines to seek out and strive for positions of leadership. To guide Marines in this endeavor, Fourteen Leadership Traits have been identified to help develop leadership skills. In alphabetical order they are:

Bearing, Courage, Decisiveness, Dependability, Endurance, Enthusiasm, Initiative, Integrity, Judgment, Justice, Knowledge, Loyalty, Tact, and Unselfishness

First Sergeant Loyal Conard served our country with over 20 years of active service in the USMC. During his Marine Corps career, he exercised outstanding leadership and occupational skills with the Marine Corps Air Wing. Rising to the grade of E-8, First Sergeant Conard continually demonstrated positive leadership, not only for those in his charge, but also for all he encountered.

After retiring from the Marines, Loyal worked on Fort Campbell, KY for Taylor Motors, which provided School Bus service for the Fort Campbell Schools. Expanding his woodworking hobby in 1999, Loyal opened L.C. Woodcrafters on Fort Campbell Boulevard. Specializing in custom shadow boxes, plaques, framing, trophies and other forms of recognition, Loyal was able to provide a meaningful service for those who deserved special recognition. He built his business and reputation by providing beautiful products for his many customers. He was a charter member of the James N. McCutchen Detachment of the Marine Corps League #603, Clarksville. He served as Detachment Commandant and a term as Department of Tennessee Commandant.

Following his passing in April 2018 at the age of 82, First Sergeant Conard bequeathed his business to the daughter of a fellow Marine to ensure that recognition for service could continue; not only for the military but for youth, church and community activities. He will be remembered for his leadership and service; as an American, Marine, Father, Grandfather and Businessman.

The Winner will be chosen by a review committee of Detachment #603 and notified by 30 June 2024.

Recognition date and location TBD; $1,000 will be deposited in the winner's APSU Account
